✱"Aciel is allergic to gowns" at first I thought as long as I made this setting, I wouldn't have to let her wear any fancy gowns... however it was not long after the series started that I felt regretful "Ah...! I'm wrong... Because only by dressing her up prettily can it make the entire picture more beautiful and magnificent Aciel who has finally realised her love to Lucas will maybe dress up occasionally for Lucas to feast his eyes ← (well if it's only for around 30 mins) Aciel is always a little rouge, so she hates gowns which are hard to move in, more than anything else. "Hm... this is a useless setting that I created myself..."

Lucas!
Stop pushing yourself so hard!
Please get back to the ward at once!
He says that he loves her
I have already handed Aciel
PANT
PANT
PANT
The imposing head of the Barbary pirates boldly said that he's in love with Aciel in front of me to Dragut.

If I just go die,
will my spirit fly to where Aciel is...?
You have to live on, Lucas
If you die, Aciel's sacrifice would become meaningless
Lucas, what you can do now is to take a rest and let your body recover quickly
If you're dead, what Aciel did would all be in vain
Though Dragut is Aciel's enemy, he will certainly protect her with all his might, that's the reason why I granted her to him

Even if it's tough,
you have to live on,
for Aciel's sake.
You must not die.

I took away
Dragut's right arm,

but Dragut
snatched Aciel away from me.

Is this the final outcome?

scene.32

海の女神 (アシュタト)
(Astarte)

Note.
In the title the author used Kanjis that mean "The Sea Goddess" yet the sounds for it (furigana) are read as "Asherah" that's the name of an ancient goddess of fertility, war and sea, among other things. Other names that this goddess has are Astarte, Ashtoreth, Ashera, Ishtar, Inana and more. We picked Astarte cause it's the more known. Also this is same goddess that appears in another popular manga, Red River. Famous goddess, huh.

Welcome back to our ship!
Long time no see!
Prin cess!

From today on, Aciel is going to live together with us on this ship
Let's get along, all of us
These guys
They are pirates yet they try so hard to be nice and get along with me
CON-GRATS CAPTAIN!
She's really beautiful
AHHH IT'S SO DAZZLING! THE BRIDE IS JUST TOO PRETTY TO LOOK AT!
tee hee!
Since she's the goddess of the sea
Although it's taboo to have women on board,
this woman is special
Such a lucky name!
Aciel is it the short name for Astarte?
She's our guardian angel!
and St John's knighthood is the knighthood of the sea
Astarte is the goddess of the sea

I'm so sorry, father.
I've come to be the angel guardian of the pirates instead.
How-ever...
There's only one person who I want to protect.
I will definitely achieve my goal!
I'm not suitable for being a goddess.
hence from today on, I call myself Aciel.
I want to become a knight just like my father.
Yes.
You're changing your name into a male one?
I'm going to get stronger!
And become the guardian angel of the knighthood of the sea!
Carola says
Ahh here the name of the series
Quite suitable story behind it.

Team Zica Credits: Akanenaokiki translated. Thank you! <3<3

I want to protect the man whom I fell in love with for the first time.
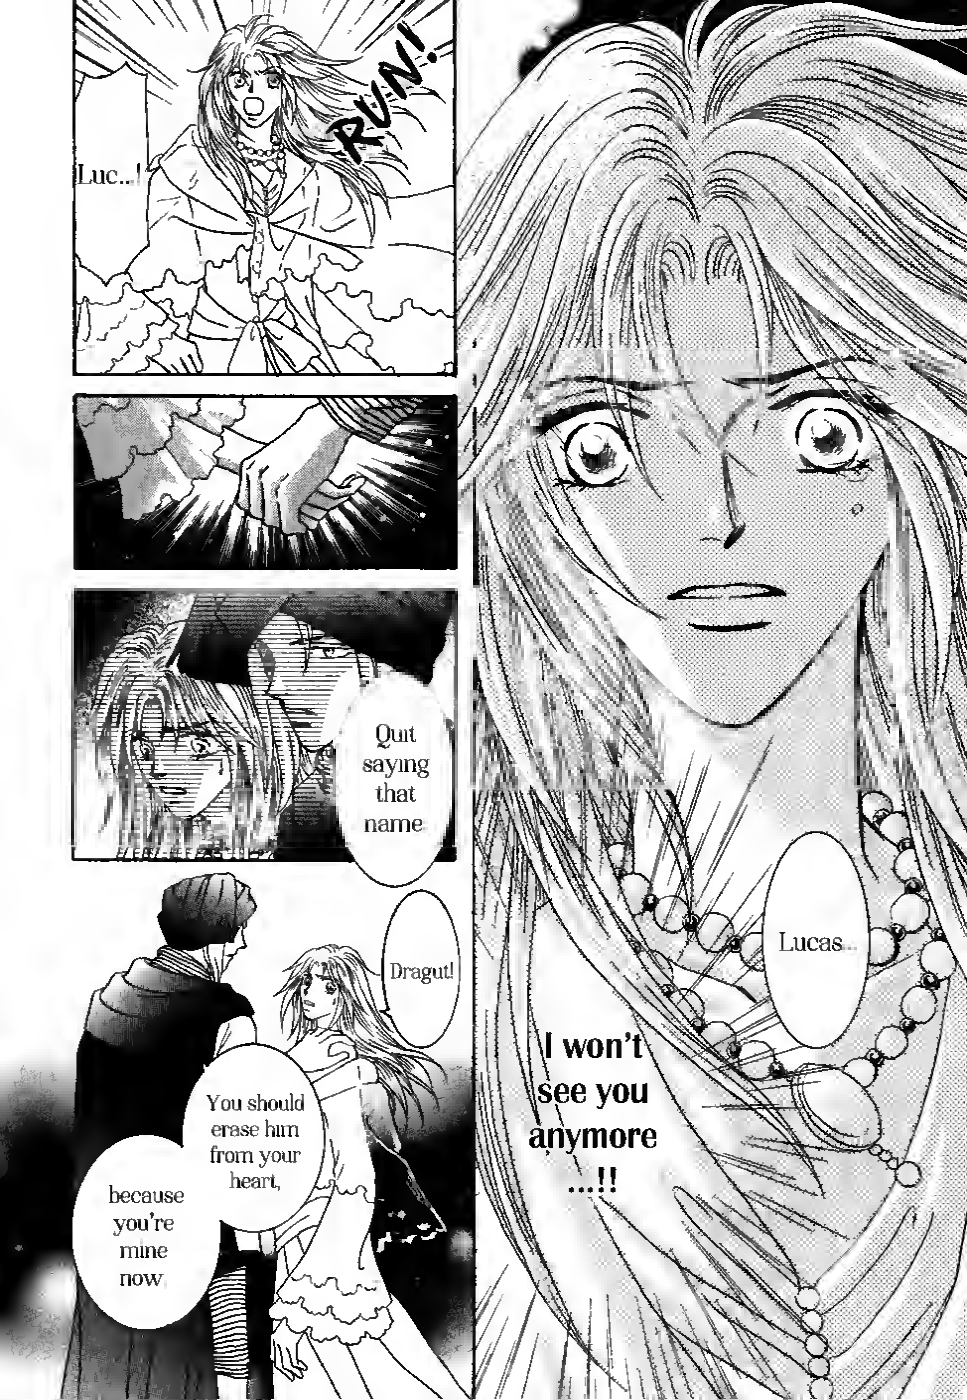
Setting Sail!
SFX: CLANGG
Setting Sail!
Setting Sail!
The ship is departing!
leaving Turkey!
We are...



Luc..!
RUN!
Quit saying that name
Dragut!
You should erase him from your heart,
because you're mine now
Lucas...
I won't see you anymore ...!!

Then this same sea...
is connected to the land where Lucas is.
I am also made of flesh and blood
SPLASH
I am trying to remain rational
Don't make me jealous
If it is the sea...
SPLASH
Must keep on living!

Lucas...

...ciel...

ciel...

My thoughts will be like the waves, returning over and over along the shore, going back to you, thinking of you and where you are,

Lucas.

Team Zica Credits: Ren and Carola cleaned. Golden cleaning duo ;)

We must bring Aciel back!
We can't just sit and wait here!
Even if it costs my life!
He can't even take a step,
he pushed himself too hard.
I simply can't help him...
Lucas!
Pull yourself together Lucas!
Lucas...
Pull yourself together, Lucas!
As long as your body recovers, you definitely will see Aciel again!
Come on!
This body of mine...
Is still alive, so...
I'll go look for Aciel right now...
The love that Captain has for Aciel is pure,
he wouldn't do anything that could harm her.
You guys don't have to worry about Aciel

Team Zica Credits: Carola typeseted. Lots of fonts!

Please stop!
It's all because of you that Aciel and Lucas are...!
What are you doing here?
Stupid pirate!
Vice Captain Daud!
!!
Lucas' uncle!
It's thanks to Vice captain Daud's blood that Lucas has been saved!
What's more! He is
You need a blood transfusion to make a full recovery.
that's why the Captain told me to stay.
If you die, Aciel would be really devastated.
And the Captain doesn't want that.

I can't process all this new information.
We shall leave for now.
Bro
Let's go wait at the hallway
It will only make Lucas more tired if so many of us are beside him.
Don't worry Lucas
If what he said is true, Aciel should be safe for now
Lord Daniel
Did Dragut... decide to save me because of Aciel...?
And... vice captain Daud is my uncle ...?
What's going on? I'm so confused...
If I can do that,
I also hope that my sister's son can survive

After Aciel agreed to enter the harem, I was also the one who suggested the Captain to tell her about his feelings before they couldn't meet each other ever again
I've made the Captain get crippled because of my sympathy for you, and now I've made this decision and hurt you again
Lucas!
KERCHAK
We are ready for blood transfusion
The captain was distracted for a mere second, when he heard Aciel shouting
He himself doesn't know that he has fallen so much for Aciel and that lead to the loss of the Captain's right arm
It's me who asked Aciel to go stop the duel,
That was the biggest mistake in my life

Team Zica Credits: Zivere scanned and later checked the quality. And after that he rested.

Lucas
Hate me
Don't hate the Captain
If I had died during the duel,
Aciel's fate would've changed.
She would've accomplished her dead father's will,
serving as a knight at Malta Island.
It's me who shattered
Aciel's dream...

At least...
Lucas
get the blessing of God.
I have to let Aciel
I'd like you to hand this to Aciel

The Lapis lazuli ring my mother gave me, will certainly bring happiness to the owner
Please give it to Aciel
I beg you
The ring that mother gave to sister—
from father ..
I under stand
...

I will definitely
I send to you,
Aciel...
I send you all my happiness to you... so...
give this to Aciel

You have to be happy

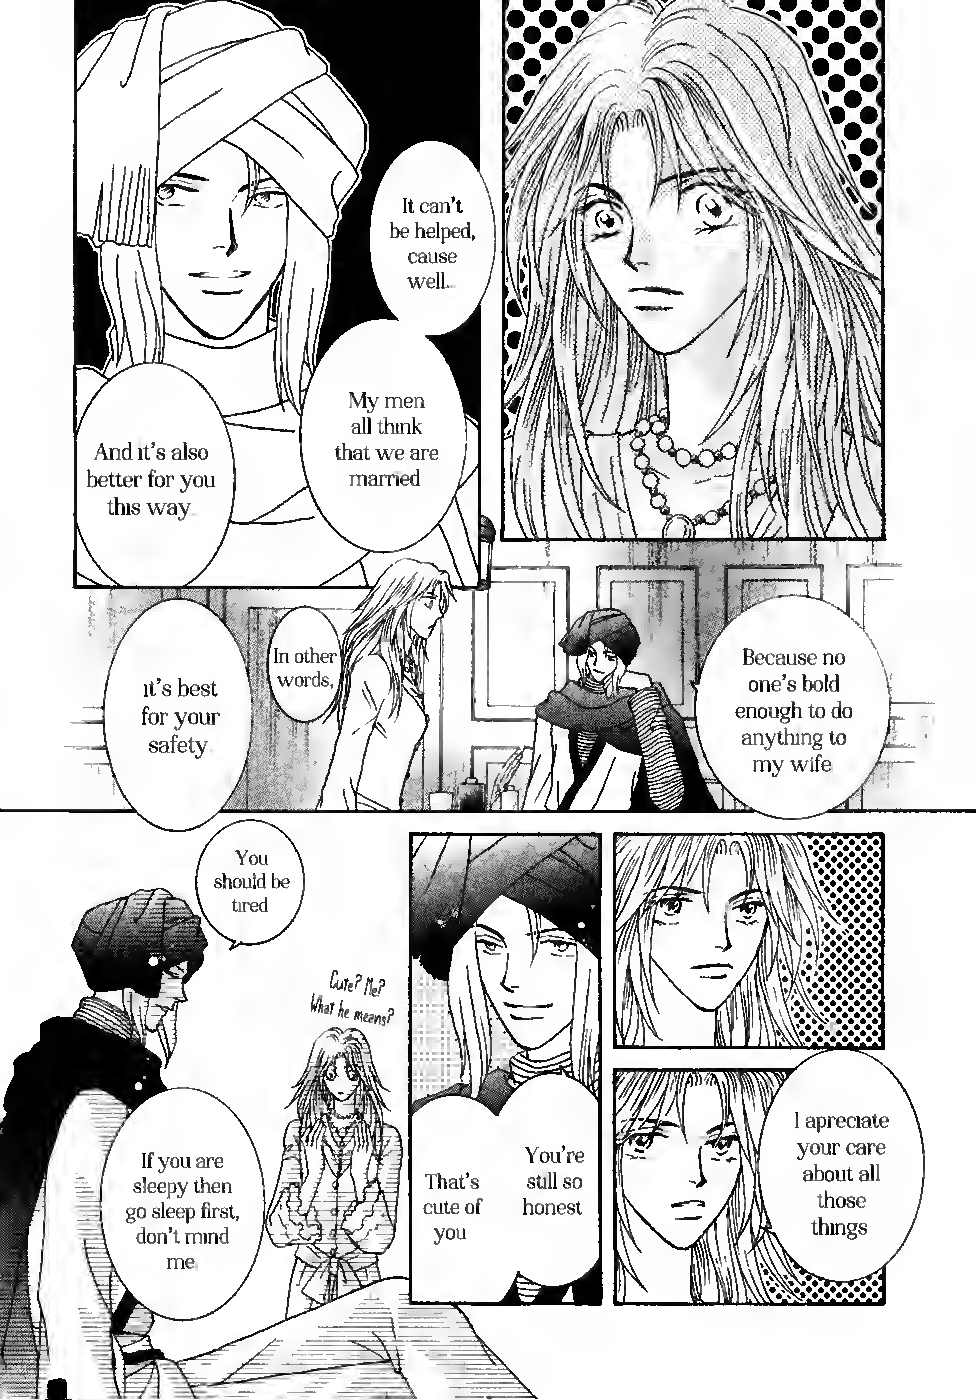
After punishing Aciel, His Majesty himself is also physically and mentally exhausted.
He said that you guys should leave Turkey as soon as Lucas recovers.
It seems like he isn't going to investigate this small matter.
What His Majesty said back then... Was it referred to this?
What do you think? Do you want to accept it?
You can reject it, if you don't want it.
"The next time you meet Aciel, you will get an unexpected surprise"
!!
It was planned to give it to Aciel, but...
More over,
His Majesty plans to give you guys a gift.

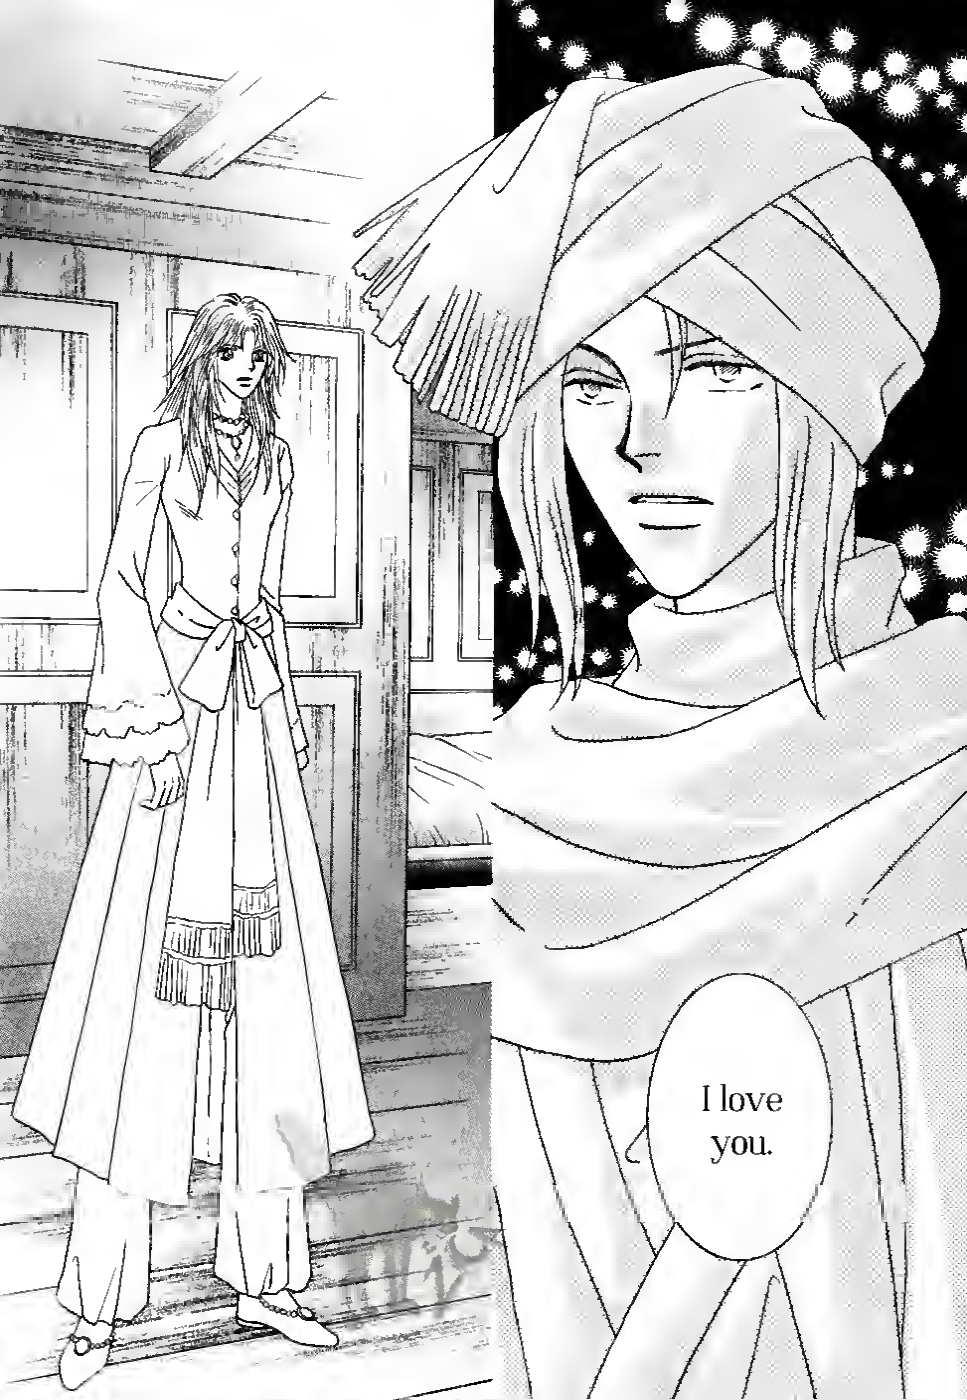
Whatever Sultan Suleiman is thinking...
We are glad to accept it.
Hold on!
We don't want it!
Please follow me
Then let me lead you there
If possible,
I'd like to know it all.
SPLASH!
Aciel.
You and I will stay in the same room,



It can't be helped, cause well..
My men all think that we are married
And it's also better for you this way
In other words,
it's best for your safety
Because no one's bold enough to do anything to my wife
You should be tired
Cute? Me? What he means?
If you are sleepy then go sleep first, don't mind me
That's cute of you
You're still so honest
I apreciate your care about all those things

From now on we are going to live together,
If you are always wary of me, your body will get sick
What's wrong?
No
I'm not sleepy yet
I can't disobey, if he wants to do something to me during bedtime
Because I was granted to Dragut as his slave...
I don't have the right to refuse even if he wants to go to bed with me

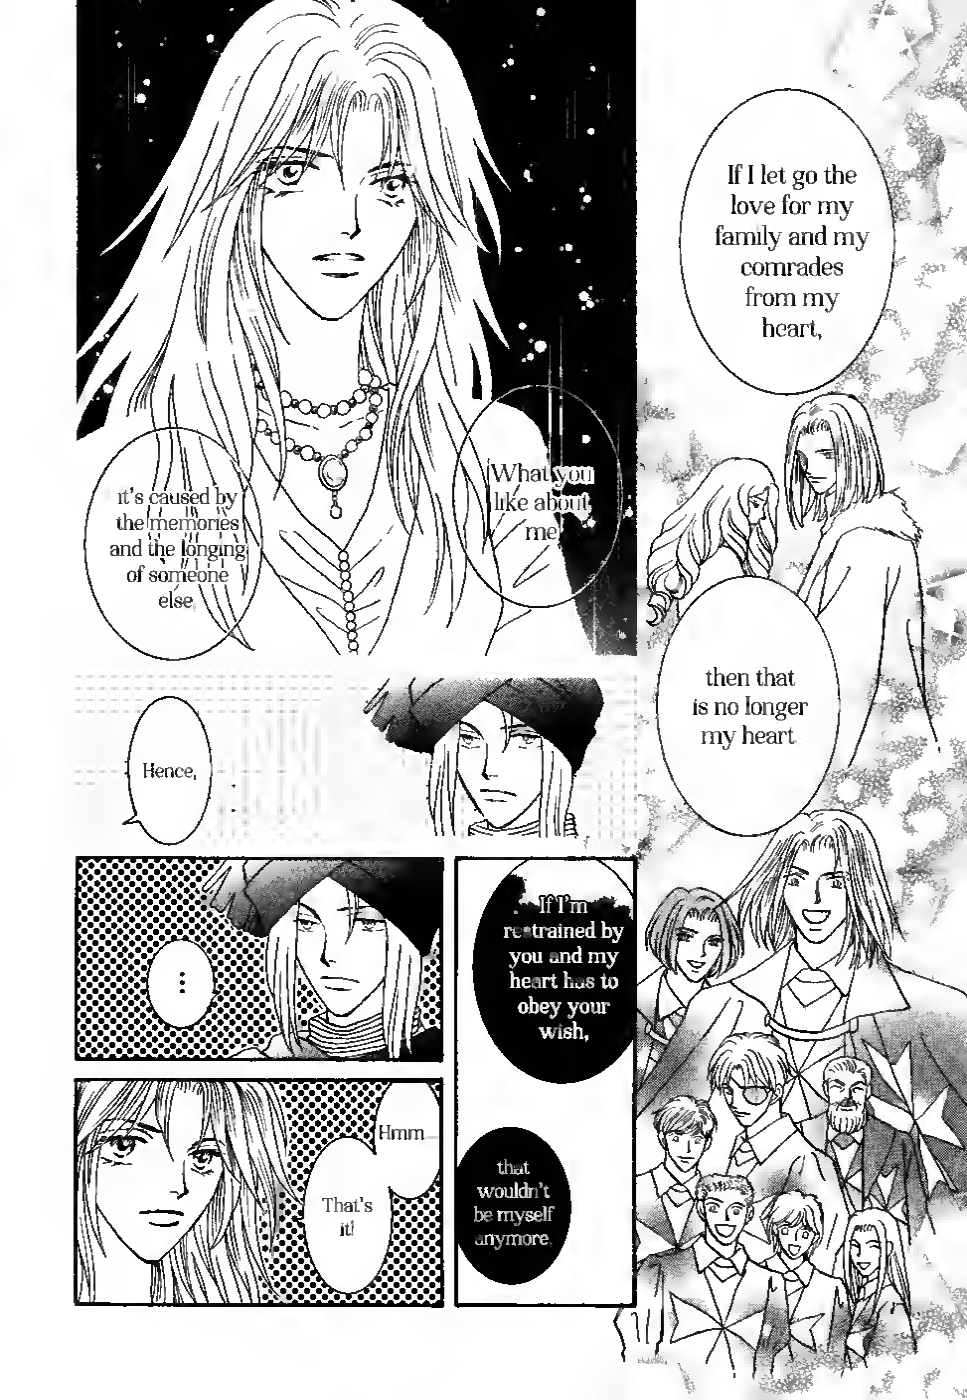
It's making fun of me...
Didn't I just say,
Aciel?
What I really want
is your heart.
Your body is certainly charming,
however,
I like your personality more
Your courage, nobility and your stubbornness,
I love them all



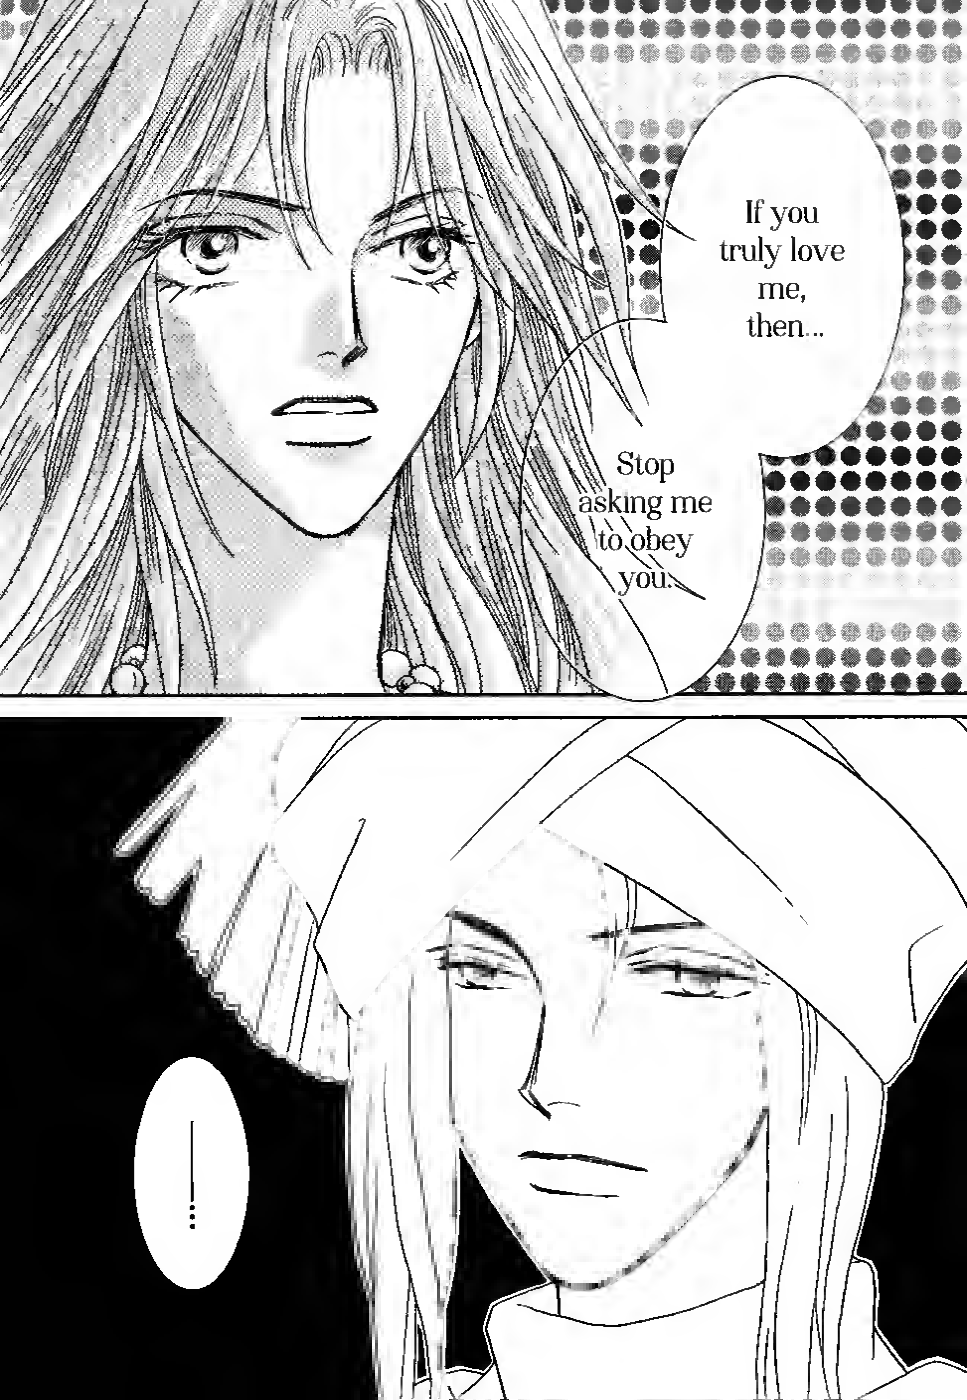
I love you.

He doesn't even look like one, but is the strongest pirate of the Mediterranean sea.
Brown hair, blue eyes.
A handsome and calm man.
Also he is the man who killed my father.
How did you kill my father?
How was my father's last moment?
Dragut
Tell me,
Don't talk about these things
Ever again

In the future, the only person who has anything to do with you is me
Neither Lucas nor your father exist anymore
Forget them!
You still have no idea what love is
That isn't love, Dragut
You say what you want to own my heart
That you like my personality
Then, what exactly is inside my heart?



What you like about me
It's caused by the memories and the longing of someone else
Hence,
If I let go the love for my family and my comrades from my heart,
then that is no longer my heart
...
Hmm
That's it!
If I'm restrained by you and my heart has to obey your wish,
that wouldn't be myself anymore.



If you truly love me, then...
Stop asking me to obey you.

You are...
incredibly proud of yourself...
Oh well, this is me
I can't help it
Ah... and then,
What else does she have to say now?
Pirates need things like that, right?
Gimme!
And a sword
give me some clothes that are easy to walk in Whom I fell in love with
The bold and unrestrained female knight
Use this sword then

This is...
The sword that Lucas' father gave me
This is the sword that you left on my ship three years ago
I didn't have the chance to give it back to you.
It should been able to reduce the pressure on a lady's thin wrist
This is my family heirloom sword though strong, is light

A smile from the heart,
It's okay, I give it due to
Is it caused by receiving the sword given by her lover's father?
Thank you,
Dragut
my love for you
Not even the most precious jewels can compete with your smile.
SPLASH

STEP STEP
The gift that Sultan Suleiman wants to give you,
is right inside here
STEP
STEP
STEP
This place...
It's prohibited to enter here, since it's the armoury
...
His Majesty gave special orders to let you guys visit this place
We call this "The Monster"

E/N: These are historical facts. Ottoman Empire had the biggest cannons that threw the heaviest bullets ever and would demolish any defense wall. Those were last generation weapons in those times, using new "technology" as marble bullets (heavier hence caused more damage).

This is...
This Monster is capable of taking down a castle
A massive cannon that is way beyond imagination
I must say
the times of knights fighting in battles had come to an end
Your St.John's Knighthood is facing extinction
Carola says: Suluk-u you gotta update Star wars say the oposite, you know.
We, the Turkish Empire,
will take over Malta Island
